WILD PLACES SACRED SPACES

The Sesquicentennial Concert Tours Canada 150! 1867 - 2017
with Wiz Bryant and the Wandering Cowboys

SOUVENIR CONCERT PROGRAM

Wiz Bryant is “Canada’s Balladeer,” the star of the hit CBC TV series ‘Wandering Canada’ and a well-known national icon. He is also an advocate of Canadian Identity and Unity, and a defender of our endangered national heritage.

Now he is embarking on a national campaign through concerts and music releases to awaken the nation to the significance of and opportunity to revitalize our national heritage by participating in the “Canada 150!” celebration.

Canada 150! What will it be? It’s up to us!

The Historic Haynes Ranch in Osoyoos, B.C. (circa 1860's) includes an ecological desert wildlife reserve and an endangered wetlands habitat. It is a living history historic site and its salvation/preservation/restoration/and presentation as a heritage tourist attraction right in the middle of Wine Country is a perfect example of a very worthwhile Canada 150! project. Hundreds of national historic sites across Canada are vanishing forever!
